No claims can be made against seven49.net, which would arise from material or intellectual damages through the usage or omission of information provided, even if the information provided is incorrect and or incomplete, provided seven49.net did not act wilfully or with gross negligence.

All offers are made without engagement and are not binding. seven49.net reserves the right to amend, change, delete or to suspend (definitely or indefinitely) single pages or the complete website without specific prior announcement.

Legal effect of this disclaimer

This disclaimer is an integral part of the seven49.net website, which links to this page. Should some passages of this text no longer be compliant with the current legislation, they shall not affect the remaining passages of the document; be the non-compliance due to outdated, incomplete or incorrect content.

No claim for complete information

The executed automated tests do not provide a right to claim for complete information.

Continuous development

The automated tests are continuously developed and are adapted to new conditions.

Current scientific knowledge as basis

The tests executed by Qualidator are based on the currently scientific knowledge available from the areas of accessibility, usability and website quality. Wherever possible, the relevant sources and test results are quoted within the test results. The weighting of the single tests is based on many years of personal experience, and is continuously adapted to the latest knowledge.

Links on the www.qualidator.com website seven49.net can take no responsibility arising from the use of direct or indirect linking to third party websites ("links"), unless seven49.net is aware of their content and it would be technically possible and reasonable to block the usage of illegal content.

seven49.net states hereby very clearly that at the time of publishing the links, the linked pages were free of illegal content. seven49.net has no influence on the current and future layout and content of the third party websites it is linking to. Therefore it distances itself hereby clearly from any content amended after the publishing of the links. This statement refers to all links published on its own website as well as to all third party contributions in guest books, forums, chats, etc. The responsibility for any damages arising from the usage or omission of information lies completely with the provider of the website where said information is published, not with the provider of the website merely linking to said information.
